Free Screening of Cross-cultural Film Arusi: Persian Wedding

For filmmaker Marjan Tehrani and her brother Alex, growing up Iranian-American has always meant being caught between two worlds. Tehrani's film chronicles the journey of Alex and his American fiancée Heather's trip to Iran to have a traditional Persian wedding. Using dynamic historical footage and weaving it with the couple's personal story, Arusi: Persian Wedding explores the history and impact of the broken relationship between Iran and America. Behind the curtain of political tension, the film offers rare glimpses of both modern and traditional Iran, displaying a vibrant and complex country that is sealed off to much of the West.
