Requirements for Matriculated Certificate Students
Applying for Admission to the Masters Program

Students enrolled in the graduate Certificate program may be admitted to the Masters Program upon application and acceptance by the departmental admissions committee.

Certificate students may submit an application for admission to the Masters program after they have completed at least one semester as a matriculated student.

Admission decisions will not be acted upon until the student has completed [and received grades for] 3 courses in the Dispute Resolution department.

Upon admission to the Masters program, students must commit to taking a minimum of six (6) credits per semester.

Applications for admission to the Masters Program must be submitted no later than June 1st for admission for the upcoming Fall term or December 1st for admission for the upcoming Spring term.
